About Us

Welcome to 1st4sport, established in 2000, 1st4sport are an industry specialist recognised awarding organisation regulated in England by the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulator (Ofqual), in Wales by Qualifications Wales, and in Northern Ireland by the Council for the Curriculum, Examination and Assessment (CCEA) Regulation.

Serving the needs of the sport, physical activity and active leisure industry; our niche status is emphasised through our accomplished people, network of esteemed industry partnerships and our culture of excellence. We have an outstanding reputation; evidenced through the loyalty we receive from our trusted partners, recognised centres and most importantly our learners.

We have a proven track record; offering of valid, value-added, educational solutions and services and outstanding customer care. Our offer includes sector specific qualifications and pathways, and a range of relevant high-performing educational services; underpinned by leading digital solutions. The majority of these are developed and deployed in partnership with governing bodies of sport and other sector specific professional organisations. More than any other awarding organisation, our knowledge of the industry and our continuous cross-sector network enables us to understand the direction of our sector.

Our involvement in shaping our sector has been significant and we continue to be the awarding organisation that partner and representative organisations turn to for guidance on the direction of travel, as appropriate to the needs of our partners, centres, industry employers and learners.

Our Mission: To deliver excellent educational solutions and value-added services to sport, physical activity and the active leisure industry.

Our Direction: We aim to support the ongoing professionalisation of our industry; supporting employment, growth, sustainability and success. We embrace performance, participation and health agendas. Our objective is to continue to support our respected partners, providers and learners.

2.5 outline the types of resources an organisation can recycle
2.6 outline the main methods by which an organisation can recycle resources (including composting) and the procedures to follow
2.7 list the types of resources that have an impact on the environment
2.8 describe how the impact on the environment by use of resources can be minimised
2.9 describe why it is important to maintain equipment according to the manufacturers' instructions
2.10 describe the impact poorly maintained equipment can have on the environment
2.11 outline energy conservation and the use of 'green transport'
2.12 outline why it is important to use locally produced resources wherever possible

Learning Outcome: 3. be able to contribute to managing resources in a sustainable way

Assessment Criteria

The learner can:

Indicative Delivery Content

4.3 outline how to create 'wild areas', for example wildflower meadows
4.4 outline how to install features such as nesting boxes and log piles to attract and benefit wildlife
4.5 describe why it is important to use traditional materials and methods when constructing boundaries, paths and roads
4.6 describe the materials and methods that should be used to construct boundaries, paths and roads
4.7 list the types of building and other materials that should be avoided and why
4.8 state the main types of native species of plants on own site
4.9 identify the correct times and methods that should be used to plant and maintain the main types of native species of plants on own site, from the point of view of the health of the plant and the impact on local wildlife
4.10 describe how to deal with cuttings, for example grass cuttings, logs and prunings, in a way most appropriate to the site

4.11 describe why it is important to deal with cuttings in a way most appropriate to the site
4.12 state the main types of wildlife local to own site, in particular those that are vulnerable and in need of encouragement and protection
4.13 describe how to encourage and protect the main types of wildlife local to own site
4.14 list the types of plants and wildlife that should not be introduced
4.15 describe why certain types of plants and wildlife should not be introduced

Learning Outcome: 5. be able to contribute to the good ecological management of outdoor areas

Assessment Criteria The learner can:	Indicative Delivery Content
5.1 identify and agree own responsibilities for managing outdoor areas in ways that benefit wildlife	When contributing to the good ecological management of outdoor areas, the learner must cover 5 of the following types of responsibilities for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1 conserving and protecting existing wildlife and habitats 2 growing and planting trees and other plants (normally native species) that attract and benefit insects and other animals 3 managing outdoor areas in a naturalistic way that encourages wildlife to thrive 4 creating new habitats and 'wild areas' 5 installing features that attract and benefit wildlife 6 using appropriate building materials and equipment 7 dealing with cuttings and other horticultural waste properly with all of the following types of natural environment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1 boundaries, borders and buffer zones 2 formal gardens 3 grassland, moor, heath and other open areas 4 trees and woodland areas 5 rivers, streams, ponds and wetland areas with all of the following types of advice and information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1 from work colleagues 2 from external organisations

5.2 carry out own responsibilities for managing outside areas in ways that benefit wildlife	When contributing to the good ecological management of outdoor areas, the learner must cover 5 of the following types of responsibilities for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 conserving and protecting existing wildlife and habitats 2 growing and planting trees and other plants (normally native species) that attract and benefit insects and other animals 3 managing outdoor areas in a naturalistic way that encourages wildlife to thrive 4 creating new habitats and 'wild areas' 5 installing features that attract and benefit wildlife 6 using appropriate building materials and equipment 7 dealing with cuttings and other horticultural waste properly with all of the following types of natural environment <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 boundaries, borders and buffer zones 2 formal gardens 3 grassland, moor, heath and other open areas 4 trees and woodland areas 5 rivers, streams, ponds and wetland areas with all of the following types of advice and information: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 from work colleagues 2 from external organisations
5.3 get advice and information on managing outside areas in ways that benefit wildlife when necessary	When contributing to the good ecological management of outdoor areas, the learner must cover 5 of the following types of responsibilities for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 conserving and protecting existing wildlife and habitats 2 growing and planting trees and other plants (normally native species) that attract and benefit insects and other animals 3 managing outdoor areas in a naturalistic way that encourages wildlife to thrive 4 creating new habitats and 'wild areas' 5 installing features that attract and benefit wildlife 6 using appropriate building materials and equipment 7 dealing with cuttings and other horticultural waste properly with all of the following types of natural environment <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 boundaries, borders and buffer zones 2 formal gardens 3 grassland, moor, heath and other open areas 4 trees and woodland areas 5 rivers, streams, ponds and wetland areas with all of the following types of advice and information: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 from work colleagues 2 from external organisations

5.4 make suggestions on how to manage outside areas in ways that benefit wildlife

When contributing to the good ecological management of outdoor areas, the learner must cover 5 of the following types of responsibilities for:

- 1 conserving and protecting existing wildlife and habitats
- 2 growing and planting trees and other plants (normally native species) that attract and benefit insects and other animals
- 3 managing outdoor areas in a naturalistic way that encourages wildlife to thrive

4 creating new habitats and 'wild areas'

5 installing features that attract and benefit wildlife

6 using appropriate building materials and equipment

7 dealing with cuttings and other horticultural waste properly

with all of the following types of natural environment

1 boundaries, borders and buffer zones

2 formal gardens

3 grassland, moor, heath and other open areas

4 trees and woodland areas

5 rivers, streams, ponds and wetland areas

with all of the following types of advice and information:

1 from work colleagues

2 from external organisations

Learning Outcome: 6. know how to provide information and advice on environmental issues

Assessment Criteria The learner can:	Indicative Delivery Content
6.1 outline why it is important to provide information and advice on the local environment and methods of sustaining it to visitors and colleagues
6.2 list the main methods available for providing information and advice
6.3 outline why it is important to inform visitors about procedures for managing resources responsibly and the reasons for this
6.4 describe how to site and maintain interpretation boards and leaflets about the natural environment
6.5 describe how to develop and involve visitors in activities that promote their understanding of environmental conservation
6.6 state the types of conflict that may arise between visitors and the organisation
6.7 describe how to deal with conflict that may arise between visitors and the organisation
6.8 list types of 'environmentally friendly' transport that visitors should be encouraged to use
6.9 describe how to encourage the use of 'environmentally friendly' transport
6.10 describe why it is important to encourage visitors to buy local food and produce and contribute to the local economy
6.11 describe how to encourage visitors to buy local food and produce and contribute to the local economy

Learning Outcome: 7. be able to provide information and advice on environmental issues

Assessment Criteria The learner can:	Indicative Delivery Content
7.1 identify and agree own responsibilities for providing information and advice on environmental conservation	When providing information and advice on environmental issues, the learner must cover: 3 of the following types: a information and advice in the form of <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 information/interpretation boards 2 leaflets 3 spoken 4 involving visitors in environmental activities with 4 of the following types: b information and advice covering <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 managing resources in a sustainable way 2 the natural environment 3 sustaining and developing the natural environment 4 noise and light pollution 5 'green' transport issues 6 the importance of buying local produce (particularly local, seasonal food) and supporting the local economy
7.2 provide information and advice to people on the site when necessary	When providing information and advice on environmental issues, the learner must cover: 3 of the following types: a information and advice in the form of <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 information/interpretation boards 2 leaflets 3 spoken 4 involving visitors in environmental activities with 4 of the following types: b information and advice covering <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 managing resources in a sustainable way 2 the natural environment 3 sustaining and developing the natural environment 4 noise and light pollution 5 'green' transport issues 6 the importance of buying local produce (particularly local, seasonal food) and supporting the local economy

Qualification Conditions: Delivery and assessment requirements

To complete the delivery, assessment, and internal quality assurance of the qualification, providers will be required to adhere to the guidance set out in the Recognised Centre Handbook.

Qualification Approval Conditions: Workforce requirements

In addition to the workforce requirements stated in the Recognised Centre Handbook, the following qualification specific requirements must be met and evidenced.

Tutor(s):

For this qualification, the minimum requirements stated in the centre handbook do not apply. Centres must ensure that all workforce meet the requirements stated below.

The recognised centre is required to recruit and deploy approved tutors. The tutors are responsible for the delivery and assessment of the qualification. Tutors are required to:

- current occupational competence in activity leadership, specifically relating to the units being delivered
- recent experience and competence in units delivering, to the level of the qualification.
- evidence of keeping up-to-date with developments in the industry (CPD).

Assessor(s):

For this qualification, the minimum requirements stated in the centre handbook do not apply. Centres must ensure that all workforce meet the requirements stated below.

The recognised centre is required to recruit and deploy approved assessors. The assessors are responsible for the delivery and assessment of the qualification. Assessors are required to:

- current occupational competence in activity leadership, specifically relating to the units being delivered
- recent experience and competence in units delivering, to the level of the qualification.
- evidence of keeping up-to-date with developments in the industry (CPD).

Internal Verifier(s) and Quality Assurer(s):

For this qualification, the minimum requirements stated in the centre handbook do not apply. Centres must ensure that all workforce meet the requirements stated below.

The recognised centre is required to recruit and deploy approved internal quality assurers who are responsible for the internal quality assurance activities. Internal quality assurers are required to:

- hold a recognised Internal verification/internal quality assurance.
- hold a recognised assessor qualification in the work environment.
- has current occupational competence in activity leadership, specifically relating to the units being delivered.
- has recent experience and competence in units delivered, to the level of the qualification.
- can show evidence of keeping up-to-date with developments in the industry (CPD).

There are additional conditions, set by the SkillsActive Assessment Strategy.

Additional Qualification Requirements

This qualification is regulated by Ofqual (600/1201/8) and QiW (C00/0378/9 - Designated).
